

PLAYER 2: ANDREA PREGONI

Positions: Centre Back & Right Back

Leg: Right Footed/Both

Height: 180

Weight: 71 kg

Date Of Birth: 1/4/99

Hometown: Roma, Italia

Nationality: Italian

SCOUT REPORT

1) TECHNICAL OVERVIEW- 9/10

- good ball control when passing and receiving the ball in tough situations, along with recovering the ball.
- Can produce fine ranges of passes, including through ball and long balls in behind the defence.
- Good heading technique.
- Confident in 1v1 situations when defending.
- Very good at recovering the ball, recovered the ball 8 times out of 10.
- Fairly good positioning can be better in some areas when defending through balls to give an advantage over the striker and not risking the situation.
- Scope to defend more effectively with better physical attributes going forward.
- Precise and neat tackles in most cases, taking out the danger effectively.
- Very Good slide tackling technique, re-gaining and clearing possession most of the times. Uses slide tackling to re-gain or clear the ball mostly.
- Shown very good pace to recover and tackle.
- Can be useful in attacking set-pieces due to good height and heading qualities.

2) TACTICAL OVERVIEW- 8/10

- Reads the overall game very well, allowing him to defend the ball with more confidence.
- Has good presence of mind with fellow defenders, keeping in mind the defensive shape.
- Can get a little eager on the ball and dribble longer than necessary.
- Does not possess much attacking threat in open play but can be effective in set-pieces situations.
- Defends with confidence and makes a full-hearted challenge, shutting down the danger instantly.
- Reacts and moves well with respect to the ball when defending as CB.
- Not scared to put pressure in an aggressive fashion to recover the ball.
- Can also be trained and played in midfield as a central midfielder and a ball winning midfielder.
- Understands the basic formations, team shape and press to regain possession.
- Likes to make the defensive to attack transition very quick, which can be good and bad as well, depending on the situations.
- strong header of the ball as a interception.

3) PHYSICAL OVERVIEW- 8/10

- Good off the ball movement to defend and win the ball back. Can also be dangerous when with the ball, can dribble past players to create an opportunity.
- Good co-ordination with teammates to keep team shape and formation in place. Can be out of position in some cases when in possession of the ball.
- Strong heading qualities when defending and attacking. Defensively can and is strong when intercepting.
- Tackling and ball recovery skills does not hinder his strength. Shown good strength overall and has scope to improve, provided the age.
- Good threat in Ariel duels in defending and attacking.
- Really good speed when recovering and closing down on the opponent. Likes to use mixture of speed and slide tackling.

4) SOCIAL OVERVIEW- 8/10

- Plays for the team, not selfish.
- Good communication with fellow defenders to defend and maintain composure.
- Has potential to be a leader.

- Positive and aggressive playing style allows the teammates to play the same way.
- Confident play in most areas, influencing the team to play with more confidence going forward.
- Good decision-making skills with respect to his teammates, depending on the situation and area of pitch.
- no give-up attitude, allowing him to push himself and do as much possible.
- Non-hesitant and straight forward manner of play individually and for the team.
- Did not seem to have an issue with the positions of his team-mates, improvised and adapts in various parts of the pitch, making sure the defending is done properly.